

STOWE HIGH BEATEN, 29-22

Spaulding High Played Fast
Game in Church Street
Gymnasium

HOOKEE HIGH SCORER WITH SEVEN BASKETS

The Visitors Played Locals
Even in the Last
Period

Before a full house last evening at Church street gymnasium, Spaulding high school defeated Stowe high school at basketball by a score of 29 to 22. The game was fast from start to finish, but Spaulding started the scoring of the game and did not once let their opponents get the lead. The Stowe team composed of good material but could not play the ball that Spaulding did. Each one of the Spaulding players, with the exception of Parker had a share of the honors in scoring, and he was in for the last few minutes only. Hooker, the Spaulding left guard, did the star shooting in the game, dropping in seven baskets from the floor and one from a foul. Shaw, of the opposing team excelled for his side, having a total of four to his credit. Out of seven chances for shooting fouls, Heath, the Stowe left forward, dropped in six.

The game was hardly started when Hooker got his first basket. In the first period he played the best, getting five of his seven baskets. He also held his man to one, and Shaw has a high reputation as a basketball player, too. Oliver played a consistent game at left forward, as did Sector at right. "Peanut" Carroll, the husky Spaulding center, played a good game against his opponent, McMahon, getting two against one, although he fouled three times in the first period, each one netting a point for Stowe. Three other fouls in this period, two by Tomasi and one by Sector, were nearly as disastrous, as Heath got two, Shaw missing the other. The score at the end of the first half stood 14 to 7, with Spaulding in the lead.

In the second period, Stowe played better than in the first, getting the same amount of points as their opponents, which was 15. After 10 minutes' play, McMahon, the Stowe center, received injuries that made him unable to finish the game. His place was taken by Houston, who formerly played at right guard. Russ filling the latter position. As the referee was about to start the game, after time had been called on account of McMahon's injuries, the lights flickered and went out, leaving the hall in complete darkness. During this time the Spaulding rooters took the opportunity

Before I had taken two bottles I had gained in health and strength so I could do 100 per cent. more work than before."

"Vinol is the best tonic I ever took, and I cannot say enough in its praise to do it justice."—William Kohlhoff, 4 Irving place, New York.

It is the combined action of the curative elements of the tonic, aided by the blood-making and strength-giving properties of Vinol, contained in Vinol which make it so successful in overcoming such conditions.

If you are weak, sickly, run-down, and overworked, try a bottle of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, with the understanding we will return your money if it does not help you.

to give a number of their cheers. When, after a short time the management were preparing to call off the game, the lights once more came on.

At this time the Stowe quintet rallied and gave the Spaulding men some surprises but were stopped before any great damage had been done. After a short play, Nichols was sent in to take the place of Carroll at center and he did creditably playing, getting one basket. SHIP BILL STARTS AGAIN

It Is Forced Before the Senate
for Discussion

BURTON OPENS FOR OPPONENTS

Hearing on the Military Importance of Philippines

Washington, Jan. 8.—After several days of persistent effort by administration leaders, the ship purchase bill was placed before the Senate for discussion yesterday, and Senator Burton opened debate for its opponents. "I believe this bill will prove ineffectual for the restoration of the American merchant marine, and that it offers serious danger that privileged business interests will be built up," said Senator Burton.

STRATEGIC VALUE OF PHILIPPINES.

This Phase Considered at Hearing Before the Senate Committee.

Military importance of the Philippines and their strategic value to the navy department will be inquired into by the Senate Philippines committee under a resolution adopted yesterday during consideration of the bill to grant the islands a larger measure of self-government. Manuel L. Quezon, resident commissioner from the Philippines, urged the passage of the bill with a definite promise of complete independence included. He said the Aguinaldo government established in 1898, before the Spanish-American war, has reached its influence and credit to all parts of the group. It should be viewed in some measure, he thought, as proving the capacity of the Filipinos to govern themselves.

EXCLUSION OF CHINESE.

Organized Laundrymen Appear Before
House Immigration Committee.

More rigid exclusion of Chinese was urged before the House immigration committee yesterday by George W. Hooper and E. M. Sullivan of Boston and J. A. Barkey of Chicago, all speaking for organized laundrymen. Hooper said the Chinese were crowding the American laundrymen and the Japanese were threatening to crowd the Chinese. He said 112,000 vagabonds in American steam laundries were being affected by state legislation and competition of Orientals and that there were 15,000 Chinese in the laundry business in the United States.

SAFEGUARD TREATY RIGHTS.

Committee of New York Peace Society
Appeals to the President.

Means of safeguarding the treaty rights of aliens in the United States in connection with state legislation such as the Arizona and California anti-alien laws were discussed by President Wilson yesterday with George Foster Peabody of New York representing a committee of the New York Peace society, of which former President Taft is chairman. The committee wants to outline federal legislation which would prevent states from passing laws interfering with treaties between the United States and other nations. Mr. Peabody sought to get the president's views on the subject for submission to his committee. The president recently stated that he did not know of any proper federal legislation which could be passed on the subject and that such case of alleged violation of treaty rights of aliens in the United States would have to be worked out on its merits. Mr. Peabody has been mentioned as one of the president's selections for the federal trade commission, but he refused to discuss the subject yesterday after leaving the White House.

LIFT WOOL EMBAR- GO IF BRITISH SHIPS ARE USED

London Offers to Remove Ban on Shipments from Australia—Hides and Skins are Also Affected.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The British government yesterday afternoon informed the state department it would lift the embargo on Australian wool to the United States, on condition that the wool be carried in British bottoms.

The lifting of the wool embargo also favorably affects hides and skins shipped to the United States. The British government will require a shipper's guarantee against the re-exportation of raw or manufactured produce.

Vigorous protest to the state department against lifting of the war embargo on wool in favor of British ships only, thereby "discriminating" against American ships, are being prepared by Boston ship owners and wool men.

The charge that the restriction is a breach of commercial treaties between the United States and Great Britain.

Massachusetts senators and congressmen will be asked to aid Boston ship-owners' interests. Official word that the embargo has been lifted in favor of the British ship owners was received in this city yesterday both from Washington and Australia.

"We certainly will make a vigorous protest," Counsel W. Crocker, a lawyer, of 110 State street, representing Boston ship owners, said yesterday.

"I received a cablegram yesterday from Capt. James MacLachlan of the American clipper ship Aryan, owned by my law partner here, Eugene F. Carver, who is now in Detroit, confirming the news of the discrimination. He and his ship have been at Sydney since the latter part of November awaiting permission to take a cargo of about 15,000 bales of merino wool, valued at approximately $1,500,000, and owned by Boston wool dealers."

Winthrop L. Marvin, secretary of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, said: "That restriction, to my mind, is clearly against our commercial

SAYS ACID STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION

Excess of Hydrochloric Acid Sour the Food and Forms
Gases

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or, rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by hyper-acidity, meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach, which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach, much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases, which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and, instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescent and, furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making miasma, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys, and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.—Advt.

treaties with Great Britain. I think provision must have been inserted inadvertently. In all probability the British government will waive the restriction when its attention is called to it. Great Britain can no more require that we ship wool in British ships than we could require that American cotton for England be shipped only in American ships."

TO ASK REPARATION FOR CANADIAN BORDER SHOOTING

State Department Preparing Note Requesting Aid for Families and Punishment of Soldiers.

Washington, Jan. 8.—State department officials yesterday began preparing a note to Great Britain asking reparation for the families of Charles Dorsch and Walter Smith, the two Americans fired upon by Canadian troops while duck hunting in the Niagara river. The representations, which will be transmitted to the British embassy this week, will also ask, it is understood, that the Canadian troops be punished. Evidence has been presented to the department that they shot to kill. Smith was killed almost instantly and Dorsch is in a precarious condition.

COTTON SHIP DENVER RELEASED BY BRITISH

The Cargo Had Been Certified By the British Consul
Here.

London, Jan. 8.—The cotton-laden steamship Denver, which was diverted into the Orkney islands by a British cruiser, was ordered released before the American protest against her detention could be filed.

The steamship was loaded under the supervision of a British consular representative, who had certified to her cargo.

Washington, Jan. 8.—While release of the American cotton steamer Denver, following her detention by British authorities gave officials satisfaction yesterday, it was intimated that such incidents, with their moral effect in deterring shippers, were involved in the general shipping protest. Even the prospects of arrest of a vessel, although release might be immediately ordered, is regarded as interference with American commerce by making shippers wary of engaging in transatlantic trade.
